1. Introduction

This policy applies to St John's College which is an Independent Specialist College (ISP) registered with the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA)¹ as an approved Section 602 569.92 TF2 11 16 institution.²

The college is owned and run by the national charity Ambitious about Autism (AaA). AaA is a national charity for autistic children and young people who may also have a learning disability. AaA's vision is for a future where every autistic child and young person can be themselves and realise their ambitions and our mission is that we stand with autistic children and young people, champion their rights and create opportunities.

The college is funded through a combination of fees paid by Local Authorities, the ESFA and also voluntary income to fund the college's development, research, evaluation, providing support and additional resources.

2. Charging and Remissions

During the college's day, all activities that are a necessary part of the curriculum will be provided free of charge as this is included within the fee paid for the education placement. This includes any materials, equipment and transport to take young people between the school and the activity. There will be no charge for any activity that is an essential part of the syllabus for an approved examination or accredited course of study.

Voluntary contributions may be sought for any activity that is not an essential part of the syllabus for an approved examination or accredited course of study.
